Restaurants and bars

CUT at 45 Park Lane

Wolfgang Puck's first restaurant in Europe, CUT at 45 Park Lane is a modern American steak restaurant serving delectable dishes such as prime dry and wet aged beef, succulent pan-roasted lobster and sautéed whole fresh fish, not to mention an exceptional wine list. With its sleek interiors, mouth-watering menu and internationally acclaimed chef David McIntyre, CUT at 45 Park Lane is one of London's most desirable restaurants.

Bar 45

Keen advocates of pre-dinner cocktails and nightcaps will enjoy an evening in Bar 45. Those who prefer more intimate gatherings can hire private spaces including The Library, located above the lobby on the first floor.

The Dorchester

Guests can also take advantage of the bars and restaurants at The Dorchester, 45 Park Lane's sister hotel, only a few steps away. Meet for cocktails at The Bar at The Dorchester, or choose from gastronomic delights including: Alain Ducasse at The Dorchester – the proud recipient of three Michelin stars; Cantonese dishes at China Tang; light bites at The Spatisserie; and award-winning afternoon teas in The Promenade. Cross-hotel billing is available.

Spa

45 Park Lane offers a range of spa and health amenities such as a gym, in-room manicure, massage, yoga mat and DVD.

The Dorchester Spa

Guests can also enjoy privileged access to The Dorchester Spa, a calm and peaceful retreat with relaxation facilities including spa baths and steam rooms. The spa provides an extensive range of beauty, grooming and therapeutic treatments for both men and women and there is also a fully equipped gym, with personal training available by appointment.

Rooms and suites

With its landmark architecture, dynamic interiors and engaging contemporary art, 45 Park Lane is an effortlessly luxurious hotel where dedicated hosts provide an excellent service tailored to each guest.

The hotel's 46 rooms and suites are among the largest in London and uniquely, each room has a captivating view over Hyde Park – some also feature terraces. The décor is immaculate and comfortable throughout, with bespoke furniture and crisp linens lending warm, natural tones.

All rooms offer hi-tech amenities including multi-channel Bang & Olufsen LCD screen TVs and Wi-Fi internet access. En suite bathrooms complete the appeal with exquisite marble baths, freestanding showers and mirror-mounted TV screens.

Penthouse Suite

The Penthouse Suite is a sight to behold, with panoramic views of the London skyline and bright, airy rooms leading on to a private terrace. It features two sumptuous en suite bedrooms, a separate cloakroom, private lift and staircase access, a dining room and spacious sitting room.

Discover London

With its unique and vibrant blend of history and culture, London offers visitors an eclectic range of museums, galleries, public parks and attractions. As one of the gourmet capitals of the world, new restaurants, clubs and bars are opening in London all the time, so there are plenty of reasons to come back again and again.

Arts & culture

Widely regarded as a hotbed of contemporary artistic practice, London has hundreds of small private galleries located in and around Mayfair and St James. A vibrant gallery scene is also flourishing further east in Shoreditch and Hackney, while the Frieze Art Fair takes place every October in nearby Regent's Park.

Major collections and exhibitions can be seen at the Saatchi Gallery, Tate Modern, Tate Britain, the National Gallery, National Portrait Gallery, Royal Academy of Arts and the Design Museum. London also has a rich selection of museums - many of which are only a short distance from the hotel, such as the British Museum, Victoria and Albert Museum (V&A), Natural History Museum and the Science Museum.

Theatre & music

Many of London's West End theatres, the Royal Albert Hall, Royal Opera House and the English National Opera are just a short ride from the hotel. Shakespeare's Globe, The National Theatre and the Southbank Centre are all nearby.

Attractions

The Dorchester is close to the majority of London's most popular attractions such as Buckingham Palace, the Houses of Parliament, Big Ben and Westminster Abbey.

Located opposite 45 Park Lane, Hyde Park is the city's largest Royal Park. Its home to the Diana, Princess of Wales, Memorial Fountain and the Serpentine Gallery. Visitors can also enjoy a range of leisure activities including jogging, tennis, horse-riding, and boating on the Serpentine.

Shopping

Near the hotel, discover London's most exclusive shopping areas such as New Bond Street, Old Bond Street, South Molton Street, Knightsbridge, Sloane Square and Chelsea. With a wide range of leading brands, high street names and specialist retail outlets, Oxford Street, Regent Street, Piccadilly and Covent Garden are also within walking distance.

Bars & restaurants

Within easy reach of London's finest bars and restaurants, guests are in an ideal position to sample London's culinary delights. From fine dining to international cuisine, London is home to some of the world's most acclaimed chefs. With an array of traditional pubs, stylish gastropubs and contemporary bars in the area, you'll be able to take full advantage of London's vibrant nightlife.
